November 2 Hachi: A Dog's Tale (2009) 1 h 33 m, G, Drama. This heartwarming true story is an American adaptation of a Japanese tale about a loyal dog named Hachiko. This very special friend would accompany his master to the train station every day and return each afternoon to greet him after work. Sadly, his master goes to work one day, but dies at work and never returns to the station. Hachiko faithfully returns to the same spot at the station that evening, and every day until the last day of his life, to wait for his beloved master. During his daily visits, Hachiko touches the lives of many who work near and commute through the train station square.

November 9 On Golden Pond (1981) 1h 49m, PG, Drama. Cantankerous retiree Norman Thayer (Henry Fonda) and his conciliatory wife, Ethel (Katharine Hepburn), spend summers at their New England vacation home on the shores of idyllic Golden Pond. This year, their adult daughter, Chelsea (Jane Fonda), visits with her new fiancée and his teenage son, Billy (Doug McKeon) on their way to Europe. After leaving Billy behind to bond with Norman, Chelsea returns, attempting to repair the long-strained relationship with her aging father before it's too late. Three Oscar wins for this film.

November 16 Cast Away (2000) 2h 23m, PG-13, Adventure/Survival. After a plane crash leaves a man (Tom Hanks) stranded on a deserted island, he fights to stay alive, clinging to the hope he'll someday return home.

November 23 The Third Man (1950) 1h 33m, NR, Noir/Thriller. In this Oscar-winning film, an out-of-work pulp fiction writer (Joseph Cotton) travels to post-war Vienna to see his old friend Harry Lime (Orsen Welles) who has offered him a job, only to discover that Lime has recently died in a peculiar traffic accident. From talking to Lime's friends and associates, Martins soon notices that some of the stories are inconsistent and determines to discover what really happened to Harry Lime. In an atmosphere of menace and intrigue heightened by the cinematography's use of shadows and nighttime scenes along with the zither soundtrack, the plot thickens.

November 30 Drumline (2002) 1h 58 m, PG-13, comedy/musical. Set against the high-energy, high-stakes world of show-style marching bands, "Drumline" is a fish-out-of-water comedy about a talented street drummer from Harlem who enrolls in a Southern university, expecting to lead its marching band's drumline to victory. He initially flounders in his new world before realizing that it takes a more than talent to reach the top.
